User Responsibility & Suitability

It is the sole responsibility of the architect, installer, or end-user to determine if FHC products are suitable for their specific application. The user assumes all risks and liabilities associated with the use—or the inability to use—these products and materials.

Exclusive Remedies

In the event of a proven defect in materials or workmanship, FHC reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to either:

1. Replace the defective product or material.
2. Refund the original purchase price.

Claims must be submitted for inspection within thirty (30) days of receipt of the product. No employee, agent, or representative of Frameless Hardware Company is authorized to modify or expand the terms of this warranty.

Limitation of Liability

FHC shall not be held liable for any special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages. This includes, without limitation, loss of profits, loss of revenue, economic loss, or loss of use, whether based on contract, tort, or statutory theory.

Disclaimer

There are no other agreements, representations, or warranties, expressed or implied—including any warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose—beyond what is explicitly stated in this document.
